- c. Property maintenance and zoning discussion

Administrative Adjudication

- Trustee Krajecki attended a seminar on property maintenance
- James W. Binninger (former attorney of Hanover Park) presented at seminar

- Courts do not want property maintenance cases.
- Courts would much rather villages handle property maintenance issues in house through administrative adjudication
- We would like to work with Mr. Schuster to set this program up for Hampshire
 - Genoa is interested in this program
 - Perhaps a partnership between Hampshire and Genoa?
- Benefits far outweigh the costs
 - Court costs are very large

6. New Business

Genoa is interested in hiring and sharing a code enforcement officer. Should we partner with them? This committee feels that it would be beneficial for the Village of Hampshire to partner with Genoa to share a code enforcement officer.
